How to read your marks.

Assignment (weighting %) mark. Eg: Exam (50%) 74 means you scored 74 marks in the exam and 50% are carried forward to your overall score.

Award Board Decision:

Progress to L6

Please see the 'Understanding Your Award Board Decision' information below.

Understanding your Transcript and Award Board Decision

'Progress': You may progress to the next indicated level

'Proceed': You may continue within your current level

'PREAS': You have a maximum of two outstanding modules incomplete on the level that you have been studying, but you are allowed to progress to the next indicated level in the current semester. It is compulsory that you complete the outstanding resit assessment.

'NPP': This means that you are not permitted to progress to the next level of study. You will normally have this decision if you have 3 or more failed/ outstanding modules. (Students on BSLB/BSLM are not permitted to progress with 40 credits or more outstanding) Students on the Year Zero/ Foundation Year will be given this decision if they have any failed/outstanding modules. Students on Year 0 cannot progress to the next level until they have passed all of their Year 0 modules. (Students can only progress onto level 4 of the BSLB/BSLM programmes if they achieve a minimum of 60% at Year 0)

If you have this decision, you will have already been issued with a re-sit timetable at the beginning of the semester (February 2015)

Module Decisions:

To successfully pass an undergraduate module (not including Legal Studies), you must achieve an overall grade of 40% or more. However, you must also have achieved a minimum of 30% in the Exam and 30% in the Coursework elements. (In Legal Studies a minimum of 35% must be achieved on each element and an overall of 40% on the module) To successfully pass a postgraduate module, you must achieve an overall grade of 50% or more. However, you must also have achieved a minimum of 40% in the Exam and 40% in the Coursework elements.

'Pass' or 'MP': You have successfully passed this module.

'NA' or 'FAIL': have not yet successfully completed this module.

'Compensated/Compensate': You have not passed all of the assessments in the module, however under the Plymouth University regulations you have been awarded a 'Compensated Pass' which will allow you to progress with your studies. You do not have to reattempt any module for which you receive a Compensated Pass. A module given a Compensated Pass will be capped to a maximum of the pass mark of 40%. (This is only applied to modules that are compensable)

Resit: If you have a 'Resit' decision against a module in your transcript, then this means that you have failed in one or more of the elements of assessment or have not sat the assessment when you were scheduled to. Following 'Resit' you will see the element(s) of assessment that you must re-sit, plus the attempt number and the semester we require you to re-sit the module:

1st attempt – Allowed to retake as a first attempt

2nd attempt – Allowed to retake as a second attempt

3rd attempt – Allowed to retake as a third attempt

For more information on resit assessments, please see the Advice on Resit Assessments information below.

ADVICE ON RESIT ASSESSMENT

If you have a “Resit” decision in one or more modules, you are required to resubmit assessment(s) and/or resit examinations. It is compulsory that you attempt all assessments and exams in accordance with the schedule set out below. If you do not then this will seriously impact your academic progression and may put your degree at risk.

Examinations

If you have been referred in a formal examination then you must re-sit this exam in the semester noted in the above transcript. Students, who have been referred in exams for the upcoming exam period in May 2015, will receive further written instructions in due course as to how to register and pay for the resit examination. Resit examinations are charged at £10 per exam.

Coursework and other Assessments

(This information does not apply to students on the BSLB or BSLM programmes, please email lawoffice@gsm.org.uk for information on resits if you are on these programmes)

If you have been referred in a piece of coursework, please check the semester in which you must submit a re-sit piece of assessment. If you are required to re submit in this current semester (A15), then you must submit the new assessment by the deadline of Thursday 16th April 2015 at Midday, 12:00 noon. It is very important that you submit referred assessments by this date, otherwise you will be given a further ‘Fail’ result for the module. Any work submitted after this deadline will not be accepted.

Re-sit Coursework Briefs will shortly be available on the Blackboard site within the Student Services area under Resit Assessments. (BSLB and BSLM Students please see the Law Office for information regarding resits)

All Re-sit coursework should be uploaded onto your Student Portal, you will be given a separate resit submission area on the Student Portal in which to submit. Please make sure you submit into the correct resit submission area for the module you are resitting. Please note that the deadline for all re-sit coursework Thursday 16th April 2015 at Midday, 12:00 noon.

If you have any questions about any of the above, please contact studenthub@gsm.org.uk

Mitigating circumstances

If you believe that you have unforeseen, unpreventable circumstances that significantly disrupt your ability to complete the above re-assessment or any other assessment you are taking this semester, then you should submit a Mitigating Circumstances Form together with supporting evidence. The form and guidance are available on the Student Portal.

Appeals

Please note that you may only appeal against marks awarded if you feel one, or more, of the below conditions has been met:

- That there existed circumstances affecting the candidate's performance of which the examiners had not been made aware when the recommendation or decision was made, and that had the examiners been aware of those circumstances it was reasonably likely that the examiners would not have made the recommendation or decision, or would have made a different recommendation or decision.
- That there were procedural irregularities in the conduct of the assessment process (including administrative error), of such a nature as to cause reasonable doubt as to whether the examiners would have reached the same conclusion had the irregularities not occurred.
- That there are reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation or decision was influenced by prejudice or bias on the part of one or more of the examiners.

If you feel that one, or more, of these conditions has been met, then please visit the Student Hub to complete an appeal form which must be submitted with supporting evidence within 14 days of receipt of the transcript for appeals relating to the E14 semester (October 2014 to January 2015)
